17th ANNUAL SPORT NITE

presented by THE GIRLS of Trenton Central High School

March 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 1951
at 8:15 p. m.

T. H. S. Girls Sport Nite

Although our health program is largely a physical one, it goes beyond the mere development of the body. There are exercises that are designed to promote health; in addition, there are dances and rhythmic to develop poise and grace. But above all, there is an enjoyable program of competitive sports sponsored chiefly to imbue the pupil with a love of games and the spirit of sportsmanship. Girls' Sports Nite is not merely a spectacular show; it is the culmination of the regular indoor physical education program, presenting in review every activity indulged in during the season.

On a bright starlit night, we find a group of spectators being shown the beauty of the heavens thru a telescope, by an aged astronomer. As the last customer disappears, the old man is startled by the appearance of Mercury. He is indeed frightened, but Mercury soon calms him and extends to him an invitation from the Gods to visit the world beyond. Delighted at the invitation, the astronomer accepts and off they go.

Together they witness the splendor of the Sun, the reflection of the Moon, and are inspired by the twinkling of the Stars and Comets. The old man is completely dazed by the grandeur of everything he sees, and feels well rewarded for his years of work on earth.

A slumbering little angel nestled in a stray cloud, upon nearing earth tumbles off and finds herself in a big city. She tries vainly to re-enter heaven, but learns from the gate guards that first she must do a good deed on earth to redeem herself before being permitted to go back.

On earth the angel is startled by a group of children who are mischievously stealing apples from a fruit vender's cart, and gambling at the encouragement of Temptation.

Finding an opportunity to do a good deed, she sets out to persuade the children that they have done wrong. Finally winning them over, she fulfills her task, and is allowed to return to heaven.
