J. H. S. Girls' Sport Nite

Although our health program is largely a physical one, it goes beyond the mere development of the body. There are exercises that are designed to promote health; in addition, there are dances and rhythmic to develop poise and grace. But above all, there is an enjoyable program of competitive sports sponsored chiefly to imbue the pupil with a love of games and the spirit of sportsmanship. Girls' Sport Nite is not merely a spectacular show; it is the culmination of the regular indoor physical education program, presenting in review every activity participated in during the season.

The Prelude recalls four of the many memorable anniversaries of Sport Nite. As is the custom, Paper highlights our First Anniversary, while Wood, in the guise of wooden Indians, marks our Fifth. Silk sails float gracefully before your eyes in the Twelfth, and Crystal sparkles brightly in the Fifteenth. Delicate China symbolizes the Twentieth Anniversary, which we are celebrating this year. This symbol of our Twentieth Anniversary signals the merging of all the Anniversaries in a triumphant spectacle promising greater wonders yet to come.

Koong-Shee was the daughter of a wealthy mandarin, and loved Chang, her father's secretary. The mandarin, who wished his daughter to marry a wealthy suitor, forbade the marriage and locked his daughter up in his summer house.

From her prison, Koong-Shee "watched the willow tree blossom" and hoped to be free when the peach bloomed.

Chang, by means of disguise entered the mandarin's garden and succeeded in carrying off Koong-Shee. As they were escaping across the bridge, the father discovered them and cast a spell on them. Their spirits immediately changed into two doves and flew away.
