"One for the Money, Two for Show,
Three to Get Ready, and Four to Go!!!"

There is much more that goes into producing a show than that which meets the eye. Money must be secured, hours are spent in tedious rehearsals, and many hands contribute to the final production. The big night comes, the curtains rise, and on with the show!

Two on the Aisle
Snow Maiden Ballet

The beautiful young Snow Maiden is the daughter of Father Frost and they live in the icy forest, for the light of the sun would melt her and she would be no more. One day, the shepherd, Lels, encounters her while searching for his lost sheep. Later she sees the betrothed couple, Misgir and Cupava, and for the first time sees human love. Being innocently unaware of the moral code of ethics, she falls in love with Misgir and wants him all for herself; so she tells her father she is leaving the forest to join the mortals. When the Snow Maiden and Misgir meet again, he finds that he is unable to resist her love and forgets all about Cupava.

Misgir and the Snow Maiden celebrate by dancing a love duet; but suddenly the spring sun begins to rise. Misgir and the villagers are powerless to do anything and the Snow Maiden melts in his arms. Broken-hearted, Misgir ends his life by jumping in the river.
